

THCI Membership Application

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the Tourism and Hospitality Catering Institute of Australia. We would encourage you to visit the web site at www.thci.com.au for further current information about member programmes and benefits.

The Tourism and Hospitality Catering Institute of Australia is a professional organisation which works towards improving the skills and abilities of its members in whatever sector of the industry they are engaged. As a professional organisation, it seeks primarily to provide avenues for improvement in skills relating to management and human resources which, in turn, facilitate progress along any given career path.

Your annual fee will be determined by your level of membership as outlined on the THCI website. Upon completion of this form, you will be contacted by a THCI representative from your State with further information. Please don't hesitate to contact the THCI should you have any further questions.

Best regards for your ongoing success in this vibrant industry of ours,

W. R. Galvin OAM
President
